Decoding Your Relationships

Your astrological birth chart is a blueprint of your inner and outer world, and the stars can reveal a lot about your closest relationships—your parents, siblings, partners, and more. This worksheet is designed to help you interpret your relationships in a concise and easy-to-understand way.

INSTRUCTIONS:

Each prompt is marked by a pencil icon.  Fill in the prompt using the keywords in this guide (pages 6-8).

EXAMPLE:

The Sun represents dad and the sign of your Sun can tell you a lot about how your dad treated you. The prompt for dad is (page 2):

My dad acted in a (Sun sign) _____ way towards me.

If you have a Taurus Sun, that means your dad acted in a Taurus way towards you. This is how you might fill out the prompt:

My dad acted in a (Taurus) patient, encouraging, and protective way towards me.

What the Planets Can Tell You

SUN = DAD

(If dad was not in your life, this would represent the most important paternal figure from childhood, such as a grandpa).

My dad acted in a (Sun sign) _____ way towards me.

MOON = MOM

(If mom was not in your life, this would represent the most important maternal figure from childhood, such as a grandma, aunt, or even dad).

My mom acted me in a (Moon sign) _____ way towards me.

VENUS, MOON = WOMAN

I am attracted to women who exhibit the qualities of (Venus sign) _____ and (Moon sign) _____.

MARS, SUN = MAN

I am attracted to men who exhibit the qualities of (Mars sign) _____ and (Sun sign) _____.

SIDENOTE

Conventional astrology separates men and women in traditional ways. Venus & Moon represents the values of nurturing and taking care of people, and is traditionally associated with women. Mars represents the values of competing, fighting, and achieving, and is traditionally associated with men. You should feel free to use the planets in any way you wish! Venus tells you the qualities that you value and appreciate the most in other people. Moon tells you the qualities that make you feel nurtured and cared for. Mars tells you the qualities that make you feel excited and passionate, and shows what you're sexually attracted to. The Sun tells you the qualities that make you feel like your best self.

What the Houses Can Tell You

There are two components to interpreting a house: the sign of the house and the planets within it.

Sign of the house = ATTITUDE How the other person acted towards you.

Planets in a house = ACTION Things you may experience in your relationship.

For example, let's say you have a Scorpio Third House with Mars in it. The Third House rules siblings, and you may fill out the prompt on page 4 like this:

My sibling acted in a (Scorpio) intimidating, harsh, and controlling way towards me. I experienced (Mars) conflicts and arguments in my relationship with my sibling.

Be aware that the houses are complex and each one rules over a wide variety of things. For example, the Third House rules siblings but it also rules your communication style and learning style. Having Mars in the Third House could mean that you fight with your sibling, but it could also mean that the way you communicate makes you get into arguments with other people.

I've included a cheatsheet on the houses (page 9) so that you can have a better understanding of each house.

THIRD HOUSE = OLDEST SIBLING

My oldest sibling acts in a (sign of the Third House) _____ way towards me.

I experience (planets in the Third House) _____ in my relationship with my sibling.

FIFTH HOUSE = FIRST CHILD

My first child acts in a (sign of the Fifth House) _____ way towards me.

I experience (planets in the Fifth House) _____ in my relationship with my first child.

SEVENTH HOUSE = SPOUSE

My spouse acts in a (sign of the Seventh House) _____ way towards me.

I experience (planets in the Seventh House) _____ in my relationship with my spouse.

SIDENOTE

Of course, many of us have more than one sibling, child, or even spouse. In order to find information about your second child, you can look to the house two doors down—the 5th House represents your first child, the 7th House represents your second child, the 9th House represents your third, and so on. This applies for siblings and spouses as well.

Frequently Asked Questions

HOW DO I FIND OUT MY HOUSE SIGNS OR WHAT PLANETS ARE IN THEM?

Get a free chart from astro-charts.com and scroll to the section called "Houses". That will tell you the sign of each house and the planets in it.

HOUSES

Chart houses split the chart into twelve realms, beginning from the ascendant, which add another dimension of themes corresponding to the signs starting from Aries.

2nd House starts at 3° Virgo

3rd House starts at 0° Libra

4th House starts at 2° Scorpio

8th House starts at 3° Pisces

(Containing Mars and Uranus)

9th House starts at 0° Aries

(Containing Venus and Chiron)

10th House starts at 2° Taurus

11th House starts at 7° Gemini

(Containing Sun)

12th House starts at 11° Cancer

WHAT IF I DON'T HAVE ANY PLANETS IN A HOUSE?

That's okay! It doesn't mean you'll never have children if you don't have planets in the Fifth House, or a spouse if you don't have planets in the Seventh House. It just means that matters of that house aren't as important for you in terms of your soul journey. You can still look to their sign to see what your child or spouse may be like.

DOES THIS MEAN THE SIGN OF MY 7TH HOUSE IS THE SIGN OF MY FUTURE SPOUSE??

Not necessarily! The sign of your 7th House tells you how your future spouse may act towards you. For example, if you have a Libra 7th House, your future partner doesn't have to be a Libra Sun but they may act in a charming, comforting, and talkative way towards you.
