WHO YOU ARE AT THE CORE

Walking on cloud nine! At your core, you are an enchanting, soulful, heart-led, and wildly creative person who shows us how to awaken our imagination and connect to our divine light. Surrounded by a vibrant, rainbow-colored aura, you have a knack for sensing the imperceptible and knowing exactly what others need — just like magic!

As a dreamy Water sign, Pisces energy is ethereal, flowy, and otherworldly. You represent the last sign of the zodiac, containing the energy of all twelve signs combined. Like a shape-shifting chameleon, you can easily adapt to any situation and understand people from all walks of life, making you one of the most compassionate signs! However, this also makes it harder to set healthy boundaries and know who you truly are. Make sure to find a balance between service & sacrifice. How can you help others while separating yourself from their plight?

Ruled by idealistic Neptune, Pisces Suns tend to live in the clouds of their imagination, for better or for worse. They have rich creative talents and love artistic activities like dancing, acting, music, and photography (whatever transports you to another world!) However, you can also get caught up in fantasy when it gets too hard to deal with reality. Do you often fall for fixer-uppers or wallow in make-believe relationships? That's your cue to surrender and seek guidance from a higher source! Rely on your potent Pisces intuition to separate fact from fiction & take inspired action towards your soul purpose. You'll find it easier to trust yourself when you feel a connection to something greater.

On a soul-level, Pisces Suns are meant to live between realms and spread soul-stirring art, compassion, and goodness that inspires others to believe in their own magic. Let your inner mystic shine! Divine messages may come to you in the form of dreams, gut feelings, or flashes of insight, especially around a full moon. You'll be unstoppable once you learn how to flow with what inspires you in the moment and work in bursts of creative motivation.

••• ABOUT •••

The Sun represents who you were born to be — your character, identity, sense of self, and core values & philosophies. It tells you what you are naturally good at and how you express yourself best. We all need to follow our Sun!

••• YOUR CHART •••

Sun in Pisces in the 12th House of Subconscious, Secrets & Spirituality

The house of your Sun tells you the area of life where you have natural talents, skills, and success. This is where your personality shines! Matters of this house are likely to become the center of your life.

Your Sun lights up the 12th House of Secrets, Subconscious, and Spirituality, representing the subconscious mind, emotional world, past lives, and your higher self. Any planets in the 12th House are considered to be “hidden” and harder to express. This is one of the trickiest yet most rewarding houses for the Sun, with potential for incredible spirituality and personal miracles!

Having your Sun in the house of secrets gives you greater awareness of things that are intangible, subconscious, or spiritual, making you supremely sensitive to your environment and attuned to the energies around you. Naturally connected to the divine, you have a higher-minded soul that is less interested in the ego and more focused on universal love and oneness. You are here to dissolve the boundaries that divide us! Fostering a connection to a higher truth or greater power will help you feel more comfortable in your own skin. Walk your Sun path by pursuing spiritual activities such as meditation, Reiki, crystals, past-life regression, and dream journaling, or creative activities such as art, dance, music, acting, and photography. Your imaginative soul comes alive in the dream world!

Deeply sensitive and poetic, you can find it difficult to express yourself in a materialistic and ego-based world. You may feel like no one understands you or that you have to wear a mask to fit in. This often stems from a childhood experience where you weren't allowed or encouraged to be your true self. Because of this, you will need ample alone time to sit with your innermost thoughts and sort out your deeper patterns and subconscious programming, picked up from childhood, family dynamics, and even past lives. You are here to uncover the hidden parts of yourself!

You tend to live in between realms, straddling the line between the physical & spiritual. This gives you access to the cosmic divine but also makes it harder to deal with the real world. Watch out for a desire to escape or avoid reality. You can be prone to daydreams, delusional thinking, blind spots or self-destructive behaviors. You can also attract victim mentality, fixer uppers, or manipulative people. How can you see things more clearly for what they are? Rely on your potent intuition to separate fact from fiction! Creating daily rituals and filling your life with beauty, creativity, and tenderness will amplify the magic already within you.

YOUR EMOTIONAL LANDSCAPE

In astrology, the Moon reveals our emotional framework and greatest emotional needs. Your Moon is in piercing Scorpio, which says that you are a passionate, perceptive, and intensely focused person who has a core need for emotional realness, personal power, and the deeper truth. You are here to dive deep into what really matters and create abundance your own way!

As a sensitive Water sign, your emotions run as deep as the ocean and you tend to feel things more intensely than most. Scorpio is the master of depth and they seek vulnerability, raw honesty, and soul-stirring connections. You're not one for superficial small talk! While you seek intimacy, you are also a private person who guards your feelings closely and only lets a select few see your true self, if at all. You actually need a lot of alone time to self-reflect and sort out your deeper urges and impulses, instead of bottling things up for years until they boil over.

Scorpio is ruled by powerhouse Pluto, which makes you incredibly ambitious, hard-working, and persistent. Once you set your mind on something, you'll do anything to achieve it! Intense Scorpio works well under pressure and when they are pushed to the limits. You'll love anything that can aid your personal growth and transformation, from life-changing books to mindset coaches. You are also a brilliant strategist who can find the fastest way to achieve your goals by leveraging your connections or waiting patiently for the right moment. Scorpio Moon is famous for mogul moves!

In love, steadfast Scorpio is an exceptionally dedicated partner who won't easily stray. Loyalty is a top priority and you do best with someone who makes you feel secure and safe. Bonus points for a strong sexual connection! Just watch out for possessiveness as Scorpio's dark side likes to own or control people. Can you soften your "all or nothing" approach? Trust that your potent intuition will always guide you in the right direction, as long as you are being honest about your intentions and not allowing anyone to take away your personal power.

ABOUT

The Moon represents your emotional nature – how you feel your emotions, how you express them, and how you react impulsively to triggers. It tells you what you need to feel safe, secure, and happy. The Moon is key to our self-care!

YOUR CHART

Moon in Scorpio in the 7th House of Relationships

WHAT YOU NEED TO BE HAPPY

The house of your Moon tells you the area of life that makes you the happiest and comfiest. Even if everything else in your life is going well, it will be hard for you to feel truly happy if things aren't right here.

Your Moon rises in the 7th House of Relationships and One-on-One Work, which says you are the happiest when you are socializing, collaborating, and working together with others in pursuit of greater teamwork, fairness, and harmony. A lover at heart, you have an emotional need to build and maintain harmonious relationships. You are here to find your iconic duo!

You tend to seek comfort and security in relationships, as you value talking things out with people, sharing ideas, and getting helpful opinions on a variety of topics. Partnership and collaboration are your safe space. Receiving feedback helps you feel more clear-headed, since it can be hard for you to make decisions or come to a conclusion on your own. Just watch out for a tendency to put their opinion above yours. Do you find yourself being clingy or co-dependent? That's your cue to recalibrate your ego! Being a team player doesn't mean giving up your personal power.

With your Moon in the house of justice, you greatly value peace & harmony and can't stand conflict or division. You simply can't tolerate unfairness. A master mediator, you are very good at helping people see eye to eye and lay down their swords in favor of common ground. You have the power to bring the world together! You can do very well in jobs that require an impartial lens, such as law, social justice, legal matters, and politics. You can also do well in jobs where you work with people directly, such as a counselor, therapist, coach, or mentor. Your inclusive and collaborative nature shines the most in one-on-one settings.

With your heart in the house of the other, you can easily attract partners and soulmate connections who "complete" you, as you seek someone who expresses the qualities you lack or tend to repress within yourself. This placement is known for twinflames and karmic kin. While relationships nourish your soul, just make sure to work on being a whole and complete self who can stand strong on their own. Learning how to assert yourself, stand your ground, and check your ego will bring new levels of healing and abundance. The Moon heightens your love intuition, so rely on your gut instincts to guide you towards the best decisions. It's all about trusting your truth!

YOUR PUBLIC PERSONA

The Rising sign tells you how you show up in the world and make a public impression. With your Rising in fiery Aries, the first thing that others notice about you is your energy, independence, and infectious enthusiasm. You are a firecracker who shows us how to lead through our passions!

Aries Risings are courageous spirits who approach life with boundless excitement and enthusiasm. They represent the first sign of the zodiac, born to lead for others to follow. You excel at turning ideas into action and your superpower is acting decisively without hesitation. You might even walk faster than the average person! However, patience is not a strong suit and you can have an aversion to planning, so watch out for moving too quickly and rushing into mistakes. Aries is great at following their instincts, but sometimes, their ego can lead them astray. You don't need to plan ahead but you do need to act from a place of passion and self-trust.

Ruled by warrior planet Mars, you have a fighting spirit that can meet any challenge and you tend to do your best work in competitive environments. Aries likes to get in the ring to prove themselves—the more you feel the heat, the better! Your Rising sign is your compass and you'll be on the right path when you follow activities, jobs, and hobbies that get your heart pumping. Just make sure to balance independence with teamwork as you tend to get blocked by being too bossy or headstrong. What kind of leader do you want to be and where can you find examples of that?

Your personal brand can be described as a leader, pioneer, entrepreneur, and warrior who takes initiative with zest and firepower. Your aesthetic is playful, youthful, and straightforward, with blazing reds & electric oranges mixed in. What people really notice is your quick decision-making, which inspires others to take risks and move forward without apology. At your best, you can fight for those who can't fight for themselves. You show the world how to lead, fight, and win!

The Rising sign represents your meet-and-greet personality – how you behave in front of people and interact with the world. It's the side of us that we show to the public (whereas the Moon is the side of us that we keep private!)

You were born under a Waning Gibbous moon and express your creativity best during this phase, which occurs once a month after a Full Moon. You're especially good at sharing your insights & learnings with others and may love the reflection step of the creative process.

ROMANCE

Your best times for romance are Leo Season (July 23-August 22) when the Sun activates your 5th House of Dating, and Libra Season (Sept 23-Oct 22) when the Sun activates your 7th House of Marriage.

HOME & FAMILY

Your best time for home & family matters is Cancer Season (June 21-July 22) when the Sun activates your 4th House of Home, Family, & Emotional Security.

CAREER

Your best times for career are Capricorn Season (Dec 22-Jan 21) when the Sun activates your 10th House of Career, and Taurus Season (April 20-May 20) when the Sun activates your 2nd House of Money.

HOW YOU OPERATE

YOUR MINDSET & COMMUNICATION

Your Mercury in Aries tells you how you think, learn, plan, and communicate best.

Communication style: Direct, straightforward, to the point, honest, passionate, loud, fast.

Planning style: Moving quickly & taking action right away on what excites you most in the moment, instead of overthinking it. But may have trouble following through once the excitement wears off!

Top interests: Creative passions, new trends, coming up with wild ideas, competition, winning, sports, physical activities, things that are fast-paced or action-oriented, firing people up.

YOUR DESIRES & ATTRACTION

Your Venus in Aries tells you what you love, value, and desire, and how you can attract those desires easily.

What I value & desire: Independence, autonomy, creativity, passion, new trends, taking the lead.

Partner in crime: People who are energetic, enthusiastic, & action-oriented. Bursting with passion and not afraid to voice their opinions. Independent, direct, honest. A leader, pioneer, & trailblazer.

My Law of Attraction: Lighting a spark of passion within that helps you take initiative and act fearlessly, without overthinking. Moving quickly, directly, and assertively towards what you want.

YOUR DRIVE & MOTIVATION

Your Mars in Scorpio tells you what motivates you, what spurs you to action, and how you can set clearer boundaries.

Top motivations: Deep connections, intense personal growth, healing, business, strategy, sex.

How I achieve my goals: Focusing on one task at a time and giving it your all. Leveraging your resources to find the fastest path forward. Working smarter, not harder, under spurts of intensity.

Boundaries get crossed when: Others are not loyal or trustworthy. When someone misleads, deceives, reveals your secrets, or tries to manipulate your emotional sensitivity.

What turns me on: Transmuting pain into power and facing things that others are scared of.

STRENGTHS & CHALLENGES

YOUR PATH OF PROSPERITY

The house of your Jupiter tells you the area of life where you experience natural luck, growth, abundance, and success.

Your Jupiter is in the 2nd House of Resources, which says you are blessed in your ability to make money and provide for yourself. This is a signature for being financially successful! You naturally attract opportunities that reap big rewards. You are especially profitable when you harness your wisdom to guide people through a journey of discovery. Abundance flows through you and you can teach people how to tap into their inner wealth. You make the most money when you build up the confidence to own your worth and earning potential. You must feel worthy of your highest potential. Just make sure not to overspend or overwork yourself!

Naturally blessed in: Money, income, resources, possessions, values, self-esteem, self-worth.

YOUR GREATEST LIFE LESSON

The house of your Saturn represents your big life challenge. This is what you must overcome to unlock your soul potential!

Your Saturn is in the 1st House of Identity & Leadership, which says your greatest life lessons stem from learning how to assert your identity and independence in a radically genuine way. You are meant to shed layers of self-doubt and insecurity accumulated from previous lifetimes, which show up today as a tendency to be too critical and hard on yourself. Although you have high ambitions and outsized goals, your cynical mindset can get in the way until you learn how to work on your goals through pleasure and pride, not punishment and pain. Just know that your Saturn reward is to become known as a powerful, influential, and respected leader! You'll know you've succeeded when you become comfortable with celebrating yourself and your many accomplishments.

Watch out for: Being too critical or hard on yourself. Being overly pessimistic or depressive. Seeing the glass half-empty. Feeling insecure or inferior. Not trusting yourself. Body image issues.

Work on: Building pride and a stronger sense of self. Forgiving and trusting yourself. Embracing your innate leadership skills. Taking charge and initiating projects. Being responsible about health.

Ask yourself:

- Who am I? What do I believe in? What do I stand for?
- How can I be seen? How can I express myself without apology?
- How can I be independent and self-reliant? How can I provide for myself?
- How can I take charge as a leader and not be afraid to assert myself?

SOUL JOURNEY

YOUR KARMA & DESTINY

The Nodes describe your soul journey throughout lifetimes. The South Node represents your innate gifts, talents, and skills from previous lifetimes, along with ingrained habits to be released. The North Node represents your future potential and the way you become a better version of yourself by counter-balancing your South Node karma. Finding balance is key!

With your South Node in Aquarius, you are especially skilled at focusing on the needs of the community, championing social causes, bringing progressive change, and following the off-beaten path. You may have had previous lifetimes as a social activist, political leader, radical scientist, or revolutionary. You are the people's champion! However, you may have also gone overboard with Aquarius energy in past lifetimes, losing yourself to a group or cause, prioritizing intellect over emotions and creative expression, or deferring to the crowd and stifling your unique spark.

In this lifetime, you are learning how to balance South Node energy by taking center stage and allowing your unique point of view to be expressed loudly and proudly. Rather than focusing on the group, it's time to manifest your personal passions! Your North Node in Leo is a performer, creator, influencer, and even celebrity. You are learning how to lead through your heart & emotions, rather than intellect or social causes. While focusing on yourself, you can actually create meaningful change by stepping into the spotlight and showcasing your unfiltered personality. You are meant to become the best version of yourself and inspire others to follow your shining example.

Your soul journey involves:

- Releasing the focus on groups & society (Aquarius) in favor of self & personal ambitions (Leo)
- Releasing the guard of intellect, logic, and emotional detachment (Aquarius) in favor of emotional authenticity, heart-felt joy, and creative self-expression (Leo)
- Embracing your stardom (Leo) instead of being a wallflower (Aquarius)
- Appreciating the pursuit of equality (Aquarius) while understanding the need for leadership, influential figures, and royalty (Leo)
- Tapping into your inner child and being more playful and unrestricted in your expression

Your greatest potential (North Node): Celebrity, Star, Performer, Entertainer, Creator, Leader, Authority Figure, Motivator, Influencer, Coach

Practical tips to reach your potential (North Node):

- Do things that make you feel like a kid again!
- Get on stage and be seen by others, in person and online
- Practice positive affirmations, mantras, and "I Am" statements in front of a mirror
- Strengthen your heart chakra through joy, play, and heart-opening yoga poses
